ADDRESSING THE NEEDS OF INDIVIDUAL BOARD MEMBERS AND CONNECTING FOR EFFECTIVE AND ENGAGING MEETINGS

Current times and challenges call for a skill set and tools to lead organizations with emotional connection. EmC Leaders has developed a program to educate and support board members during transition by deepening their capacity to understand how to bring board members together through engaging and effective conversations.

This experiential learning provides relationship-based interactions and communication strategies to help you with your board and team.

This virtual program will include synchronous skill-building and practice, group processing, and 1:1 coaching to enhance your own and your board's connection, building the foundation for resiliency, stability, and growth.

- Stress Management
